PRESIDENT'S LETTER,

November 2018:

If you're like me, you work in waves. For example, I'll get into a cutting mood and prepare pieces for two or three quick quilts. Or I'll get into a spree of finishing my unbound quilts.
Sometimes an event, like an upcoming quilt retreat, will set off my wave. Just knowing Kathy and Cathy from Sonflower Quilts will be speaking about organizing, makes me ready for my next wave - organizing my sewing space in the basement. I know I'm looking forward to their presentation; I hope you are too.

The November meeting is also the day we've been working towards with the OSU and Michigan quilts. Please remember to bring in all tickets (those sold and those not sold) and any dollars that you have from the sales. I'm curious about which quilt brought in more money.
Bragging rights go to that winner.

See you at the meeting,
Rhonda Kistner
